

ISSB of CA & CPPA present the Nineteenth Annual Northern California Child Sexual Abuse Awareness Conference

Featuring Linda Barnard, PhD

NATIONAL SCANDAL: Family Courts Placing Children with Identified Sex Abusers

April 27th, 2013 - 9:30am to 5:00pm

Veterans Memorial Center, 203 East 14th Street, Davis, California

The 2013 ISSB Conference is offered at no-cost, no-registration, so all who care to may attend (anonymously if they so choose).

Dr. Linda Barnard is a licensed Marriage Family Therapist in private practice in Sacramento since 1981. Dr. Barnard has served as a trainer & consultant to various domestic violence programs in Northern California since 1982.

Other Presentations:

- Geraldine Stahly, PhD, will present research findings
- Kathleen Russell, Legislative Director of the Center for Judicial Excellence
- Garland Waller's documentary: No Way Out But One
- Jane Stevens from ACEs Connections, on the long term effects of child abuse
- Survivor speaker panel

Learning Objectives:

1. To learn how the family court process works in contested custody cases & how children are affected
2. To describe 3 specific systemic flaws in the family court process leading to child endangerment
3. To understand how trauma informed practices in family court & elsewhere can improve health & behavioral outcomes

This workshop is appropriate for therapists, survivors, friends, & relatives. Professionals can earn up to 6.0 CEU's by registering & paying a small fee either in advance (below) or on site at 9:00am. Aside from CEU credit, the 2013 ISSB Conference is offered at no-cost & no-registration, as always.
